STUDENTS RECREATE 50'S IN "BYE, BYE, BIRDIE"

Rose Alvarez and Albert Peterson, played by Nancy Kurilla and Peter Brown, pledge their allegiance to Conrad Birdie during the April production of "Bye Bye Birdie".

Remember Duck-tails and ponytails? Saddles and pennyloafers? Poodle skirts and leather jackets?

The McCorristin High Drama Club did on April 23, 24, 25 with its nostalgic production of "Bye Bye Birdie". Under the direction of Mrs. Constance Wokoun, the enthusiastic cast and crew recreated the opportunism of the fabulous 50's in the extension of the Rock-n-Roll idol to his teeny bopper public.

The play reflected all the typicalities of that lighthearted era, the generation gap (between teen and adult, adult and elder), the flourishing of the music business, and most prominently living "happily ever after". The theme of the "generation gap" was delightfully portrayed by Glenn Thompson (Mr. MacAfee), Mary Angeline (Mrs. MacAfee) and Linda Migliaccio (Mrs. Peterson). Conrad Birdie's manager Albert Peterson (Peter Brown) and his secretary Rose Alvarez (Nancy Kurilla) heralded the burst of Rock-n-Roll into the music world together and later find themselves forever lovers.

The Conrad Birdie Fan Club of "Sweet Apple" display much loyalty to their energetic namesake especially when their recording secretary Kim MacAfee (Eileen Dillon) is chosen as their lucky representative on the Ed Sullivan (Drew Bernard) Show to greet Conrad, (much to the distaste of her steady, Hugo Peabody, played by Dave McHale). All in all the show provided with musical flair a hearty insight into a lively age past.

Members of Conrad Birdie's Fan Club greet him after his arrival in Sweet Apple.

Mr. Harry MacAfee, portrayed by Glenn Thompson, gives his son, Michael Rhodes, a lesson in self-control.

Nancy Kurilla, alias Rose Alvarez, entertains her newly acquired friends at Maude's Roadside Retreat.

CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY: A POSITIVE INFLUENCE

Monsignor McCorristin and Monsignor McManimon end the Communion Breakfast Mass.

At the Christmas liturgy, Sister Joan leads members of the folk group in proclaiming praise to the Lord.

"Again, I tell you, if two of you join your voices on earth to pray for anything whatever, it shall be granted you by my Father in Heaven. Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst."

Mat. 18:19-20

Hoping for big tips, Brother Joe, Mr. Roberts, and other faculty members prepare to serve Communion Breakfast with a smile.

The Administration presents the gifts at the Christmas liturgy.

JUNIOR RING DAY, 1979

To the new wearers of the McCorristin rings, their Junior Ring Day-December 7, 1979 will always be a special day. Being the first graduating class to display the new name of the school on the ring added extra significance to the event. The theme of this colorful day, "Free to Be You and Me", illustrated through the idea of a rainbow. We as seniors are all individuals with differing likes and dislikes, but together we form an entire unit- the class of '81. Just as a rainbow is a collaboration of many unique and distinct colors, but combined, they form a beautiful rainbow.

This memorable day took place under the guidance of Miss Roberta Nelson. The sermon, delivered by Fr. Cahill, reminded us of memories of the past, and hopes for the future. The chairpersons for this event were: booklet- Thomas Auletta and Lisa Kelly, decorations- Brenda Cunningham, flowers- Monica Paisley, and liturgy- Michale Amantia.

Former Juniors Tina Mostrangeli, Brenda Procassini, and Brenda Cunningham make preparations for the special day.

JUNIORS REMINISCE. "FIRST TIME . . . FOREVER FRIENDS"

Members of the Junior Prom Court included: Larry Lobue - Christine Brennan; Vince Vaccaro - Michelle Kozma; Vicki Jeremias - Joe Kildea, Princess and Prince; Joanne Smith - Tim Kleppe.

One-hundred couples danced to the theme of "First Time . . . Forever Friends" for their Junior Prom on May 23, 1980. Amidst flowers and ribbons decked in burgundy and silver, McCorristin juniors crowned Victoria Jeremias and Joe Kildea as Princess and Prince for the evening. Members of their royal court were Christine Brennan - Larry Lobue, Michelle Kozma - Vince Vaccaro, Joanne Smith - Tim Kleppe.

Janice Zuzov and Michael Britton served as Prom Chairpersons. Brenda Cunningham and Valerie Dilworth arranged the prom booklet and favors. Alicia Tryba and Denise Tysko headed the band committee. Edward Broda and Diane Pege led the decoration committee. Faculty advisors included Sister Joan DeGregorio, Mr. Basham, Mrs. McDonald, Miss Nelson, and Mr. Ketterer.

SENIORS REMEMBER "ONE IN A MILLION" NIGHT

The annual Senior Prom, held on December 5, 1980, was an early beginning for the Christmas season. This year's theme and song combined into one title; "One in a Million", by Larry Graham. Kings Catering, decorated in the holiday colors of blue and silver, provided the festive setting for the anticipated event.

Prom chairperson, Brenda Cunningham, under the guidance of Miss Kathleen Faraglia, senior class moderator, spend many hours preparing for the special night. The chairpersons for the booklet were Valerie Dilworth and Patty Lafferty. Denise Tysko, entertainment chairperson, successfully obtained the musical talents of "First Taste."

At 11:00 p.m. Marianne Bartolomei and Thomas Auletta began their reign as King and Queen. Members of their court included Victoria Jeremias and Joseph Kildea, Maria Barbato and James Smith, Joan Grochala and Richard Girman, Joanne Smith and Timothy Kleppe.

HOMECOMING 1980 UNDER THE LIGHTS

The candidates await the decision which crowned Vicki Jeremias, queen; Maria Chiarello, first runner-up; Tracy Destribats, second runner-up; Kris Dearden, third runner-up; and Maria Barbato, fourth runner up.

Tracey Destribats and her escort Ed Broda, smile proudly as they are announced during the Homecoming festivities.

The McCorristin vs. Hightstown game on the night of October 10, 1980, marked the seasons Homecoming festivities. The result of prior voting by all seniors named Vicki Jeremias, escorted by Joe Kildea and driven by Tom McKenna, the Homecoming Queen of 1980-1981. Last year's reigning queen, Mary Crocker, crowned her successor. The new Queen's court consisted of the remaining nominees, including Maria Chiarello, escorted by Tom Fiorelli and driven by Richard Suta, Tracy Destribats, escorted by Ed Broda and driven by Gene Cascone, Krissy Dearden, escorted Anthony Damiano and driven by Rich Pirhoda, and Maria Barbato, escorted by Jim Smith and driven by Joe Angelillo, respectively.

The drill team creates a walkway for the arrival of Kristine Dearden and Anthony Damiano.

Vicki Jeremias and her escort Joe Kildea arrive.

Maria Barbato and her escort Jim Smith signal the start of the Homecoming festivities.

The participation of each class in the Homecoming activities involved the annual presentation of a float illustrating a chosen theme. The winning float, headed by Karen Cunningham, and Margaret Raymond, featured the Freshmen's rendition of "The Fabulous Fifties" followed by the Junior class's "Small World", headed by Marybeth Tattoni, the Seniors' "Rocky Horror Picture Show" directed by Chris Brennan, and the Sophomores' "Huck Finn", headed by Louie DeAngelo.

GAA TAKES "A JOURNEY THROUGH DANCELAND"

Captains for the 16th Annual G.A.A. Show include Diane Pege and Brenda Cunningham for the Brown Team and Alicia Tryba and Maria Barbato for the Gold Team.

Seniors Angela Loffredo and Karen Skwara lead the Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders to a Gold Team victory.

A singular sensation, junior Cindy Revez interprets "One" to establish a dominating lead for the Gold Team.

Loyal to the end, the Brown Team supports its girls and carries the spirit of sportsmanship throughout the show.

Gold Team's Chorus Line captures a four night victory and best event of the show.

Ester Carabelli and Toni Montervino lead their Cowpokes on a Journey Out West and to a second place best event victory.

The 1980 G.A.A. Show takes off with the Brown Team Flight Attendants.

Holding herself high, sophomore Kathy Nowalinski displays the skill and confidence of the Brown Team.

Juniors Chrissy Girman and spotter Joyce Papp sail smoothly for a four night Gold victory.

"Take off with us . . ." chant senior Pixie D'Errico and her mimes for the Gold Team.

Senior Denise Tysko's Martial Artists defend the Brown Team.

Gold team cheerleaders "punk out" under the direction of seniors Lucy Valetto and Teri Piwonski.

"Ziegfeld Follies" led by senior Maria Chiarello kick up a storm and tally top scores for the Gold Team.

The 16th Annual G.A.A. Show carried on McCorristin's tradition of an excitement-filled extravaganza. This year's theme, "Take a Journey Through Danceland", provided the central idea for the girls' dances and decorations. Mistress of Ceremonies Valerie DePaul waved the brown and gold flags as Brown Team Captains Brenda Cunningham and Diane Pege and Gold Team Captains Maria Barbato and Alicia Tryba raced to accept their winning colors.

This year, the gold flag fluttered on the school's flagpost as Gold Team captured a 72-43 victory during the November 4-7 show.

Both teams presented team songs at the beginning of each night and the gym resounded with the voices of almost one half of the female student body. Brown Team clapped and cheered to "Fame", while Gold Team saluted the school with "Hail to McCorristin".

Judges awarded first-place best event to Tracey Destribats' and Carla Guagliardo's "A Chorus Line", and second-place to Ester Carabelli, and Toni Montervino's "A Journey Out West". Angela Loffredo's and Judy Willever's "Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders" received the best gymnastics award. Cindy Revesz's floor exercise took second place.

The gym flashed with color and glitter under Lisa Kelly's and Tina Mostrangeli's creation of Danceland, USA. Vera dos Santos, Louise Van Reymerdsdal, and Audrey Figueroa depicted danced trends from 1910 to the present.

As always, the show provided a week of energetic excitement and pride for McCorristin and every one of the girls gained a very memorable experience that she will treasure forever.

McCorristin High's Key-Club underwent a major revision this year as its officers and faculty advisors dissolved the previously existing club and reformed another, attempting to seek out members truly sincere to the organization's goal to serve school, church and community. Under the direction of Brother Chris Murphy, Mr. Tom Mahon, and Mrs. Fran Fleisher, the Key-Club tried to exemplify the theme of the International Organization, "Dare to Influence". Besides participation in the P.T.A.'s Spaghetti Supper, the school's Candy drive, and AAA's aid to Italian earthquake victims, the Key-Club sponsored its annual Volleyball Marathon for the benefit of runaways at "Anchor House".

Zonta International, a service organization composed entirely of professional business women, sponsors this school's Z-Club. The Z-Club began this year with a special initiation ceremony inviting new members to share in the school and community service activities that the club organizes. At the ceremony, the new officers were inducted while Zonta representatives attended this function and partook in the following social.

Activities of the Z-Club ranged from creating Christmas favors for Morris Hall residents to planning for Z-Club convention. Mrs. Marilyn Ciocian moderated the club's activities and provided her strongest support to members.

VO-TECH ADVANCES STUDENTS' SKILLS FOR FUTURE CAREERS

Mercer County Vocational Technical School offers a wide variety of courses, including construction, mechanics, appliance repair, drafting, cosmetology and medical assistance, to an interested student. A decision to participate in an offered skill requires careful consideration of one's future. Contrary to popular belief, Votec is not an easy out of regular curricular courses. Learning a particular trade demands hard work and class participation. With these essentials, Votec can act as a positive force in the molding of one's life.

In addition to receiving the benefit of learning a trade, Votec students automatically become a member of VICA, Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. This organization aids the young professionals of today become the backbone of our country in the future. Combining learning, a marketable skill, leadership, and preparation for a changing world, Votec can be a wise decision for the future.

The Cooperative Office Education program gives senior students, who are majoring in business education, an opportunity to acquire office experience as part of their high school work by attending school in the morning and working in a business office in the afternoon. The student receives high school credit as well as being paid for her work. This program correlates instruction in the subject matter with on-the-job training. New techniques, skills, and understandings are developed through business office experience that cannot be taught in the classroom. The teacher-coordinator, the employer and the student work together in partnership to gain valuable office experience for the student.

ANTONIAN MAKES HEADLINES

Antoninian editors-prepare for their next edition.

Every two months, students distribute stacks of the school newspaper, The Antonian, to McCorristin classrooms. This staff working behind the bi-monthly publication spend long hours preparing each issue so that local and national news reach the students and faculty.

Editor-in-chief, Diane J. Pege, supervises the choice of articles, assists page-editors with layout procedures, and edits material for the final product with the assistance of Anthony Intorelli, Associate Editor.

Page-editors contribute the most valuable efforts towards the paper with their time and energy as they plan layouts and distribute article assignments to other staff members. Edward S. Broda serves his second year as page-four editor and three other seniors act as page-one, page-two and page-three editors; Barbara Crocker, Tracey Woolman and Thomas Auletta.

Reporters and typists provide the backbone of the staff and every member adds some special talent to the whole.

Possessing probably the most difficult of all newspaper positions, Miss Lucine Fabian and Sr., Grace Pierre oversee all Antoninian activities in their roles as staff moderators.

TALISMAN CREATIVITY REFLECTED IN SPRING PUBLICATION

Tom Auletta, Eileen Dillon, Tina Mostrangeli, and Tracy Wollman take time from their writing to smile for the camera.

Seniors Tracy Waner, Cheryl Matthews, and Sharon Tozzi organize this year's creative display.

The senior Creative Writing class, under the direction of Sister Grace Pierre, produced the 1981 issue of the Talisman. Patricia Lafferty, editor-in-chief, worked with her classmates to assemble this collection of poems, short stories, essays, and sketches. Although an exclusively senior operation, the staff selected many contributions from students of each grade level. The staff assumed responsibility for the appearance of the magazine, as Tracy Warner designed its cover, and material is typed for photocopy. This total endeavor of students and coordinator produced the unified literary work of art and writing.

Patty Lafferty, Tony Cowell, and Theresa Herrera evaluate hopeful Talisman submissions.

STUDENT COUNCIL RUNS THE SHOW

Ringmasters are often performers themselves just as school leaders are often students: an example of this leadership is the Student Council. The 1980-81 Student Council works together to improve communication between the faculty and pupils by presenting opinions and suggestions to the administration and by working with them to accomplish goals. The council coordinates activities to promote spirit and involvement. This year's events included: a rollerskating party, racquet ball days, a Valhalla concert, brown and gold days, dances, flower sales, morps, and various contests.

Miss Lois Yencha acts as ringleader by assisting council members as they perform daily duties or head special activities. The 24 members work with Miss Yencha, administration and students, and reflect the spirit and high quality characteristics present in the school.

The Iron Mikes Varsity soccer team of 1980, under the direction of rookie mentor Dennis Kinnevy, compiled a 9-9-2 record for the year. The team proved a solid contender against the areas most skilled competitors and thus continued the reputation of soccer skill and sportsmanship that this school has attained through the years.

The Mikes maintained a steady 6-6-2 record against CVC competition. This team, as in years past, qualified early for the State Tournament. Their post season play climaxed on a 3-2 victory over St. Rose of Belmar before a disappointing defeat at the hands of CBA terminated the Mikes season.

Through the season, a number of standouts blossomed. Jerry Barbero earned second team All-County selection. Mike Britton managed All-County honorable mention. Senior goalkeeper Sam Manago, although suffering a broken knuckle midway through the year, still achieved second team All-County and All-State honorable mention.

Senior Jay Kiernan traps the ball and advances down field.

Peter Grehan drives with the ball as Princeton defender tries to stop him.

Senior Mike Britton attempts to score a goal against Princeton.

Mike Britton tries to out run his opponent in an attempt to recover the ball.

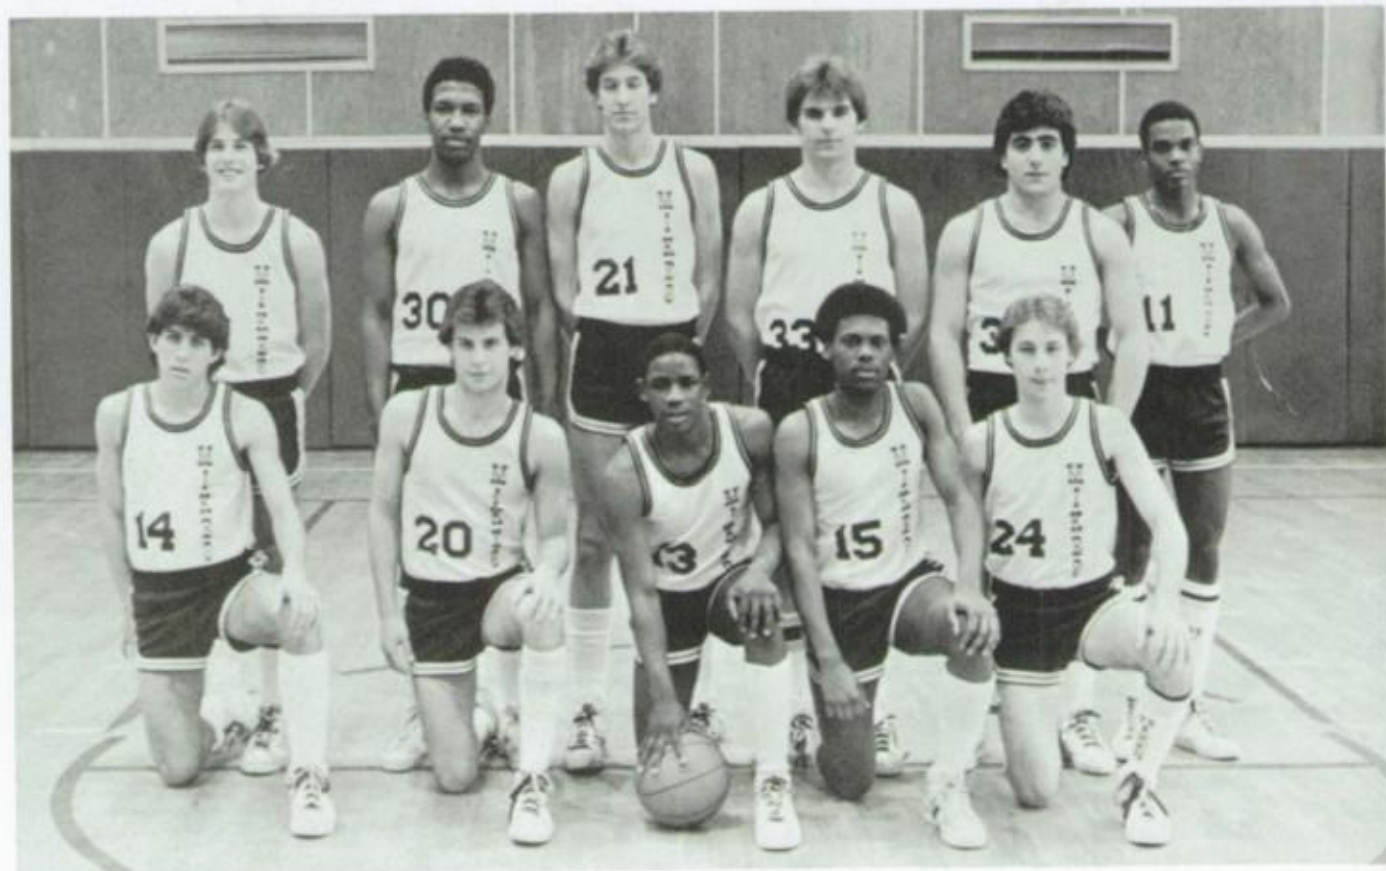

Paul Seiler and Peter Grehan pursue Princeton in an attempt to stop the drive.

Senior Joe Kildea fights for the ball to lead the Iron Mikes to an astonishing victory.

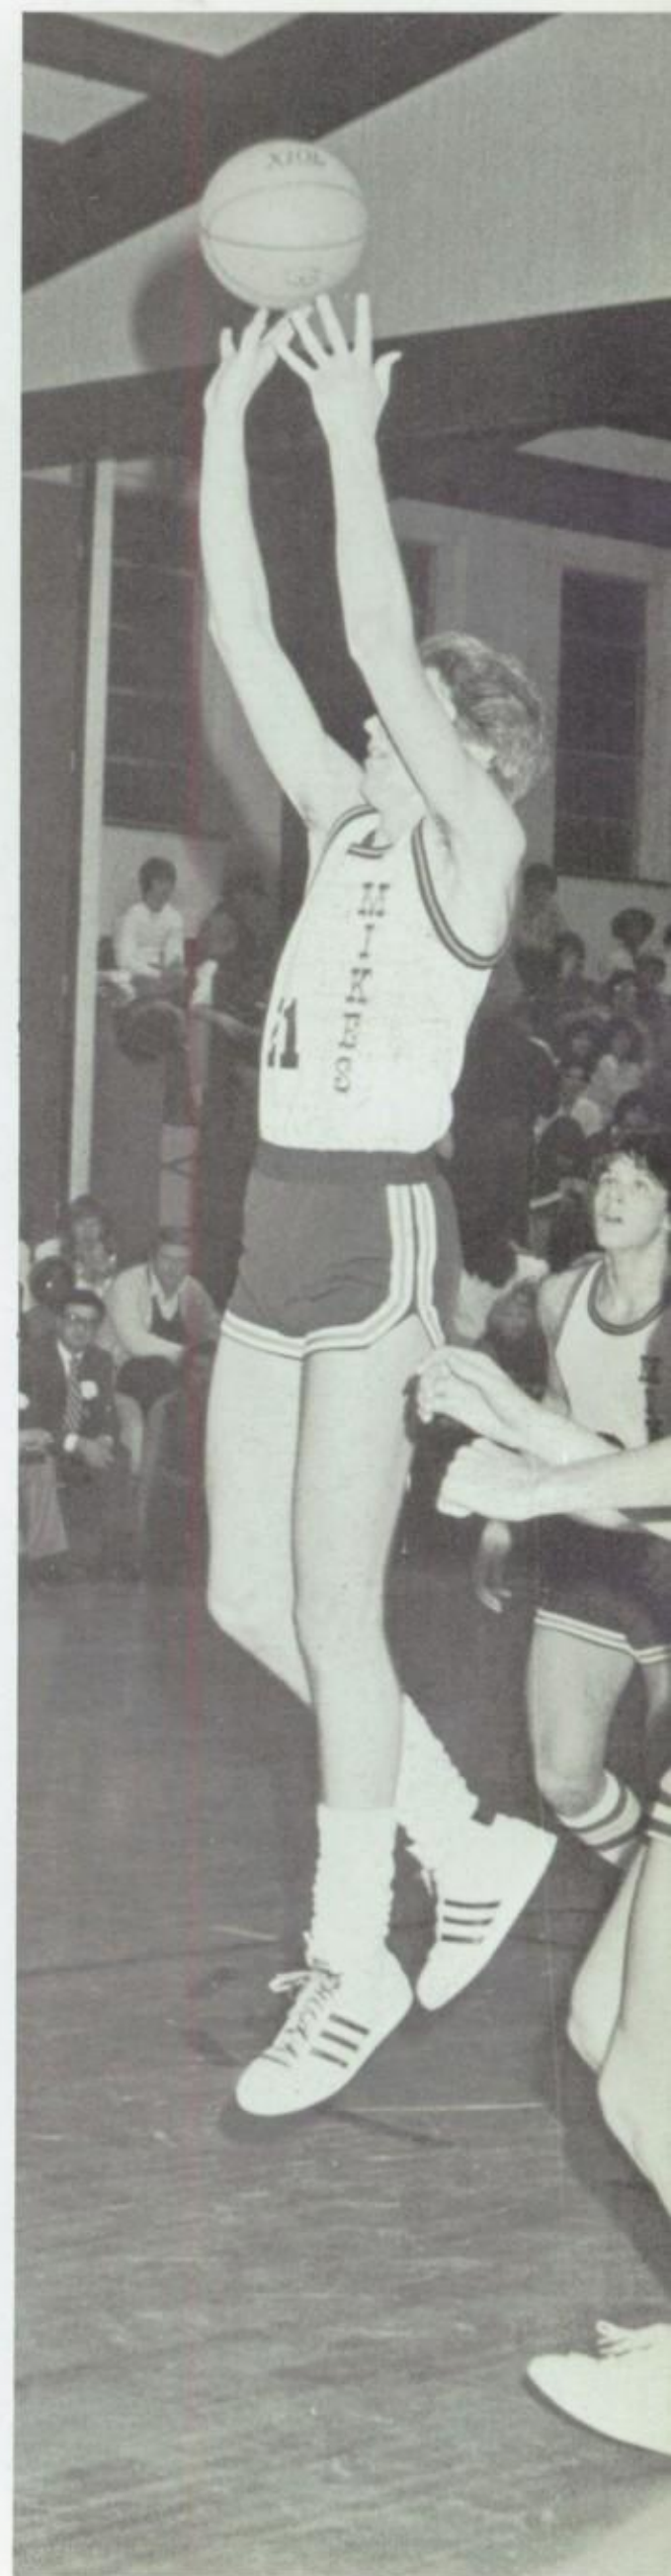

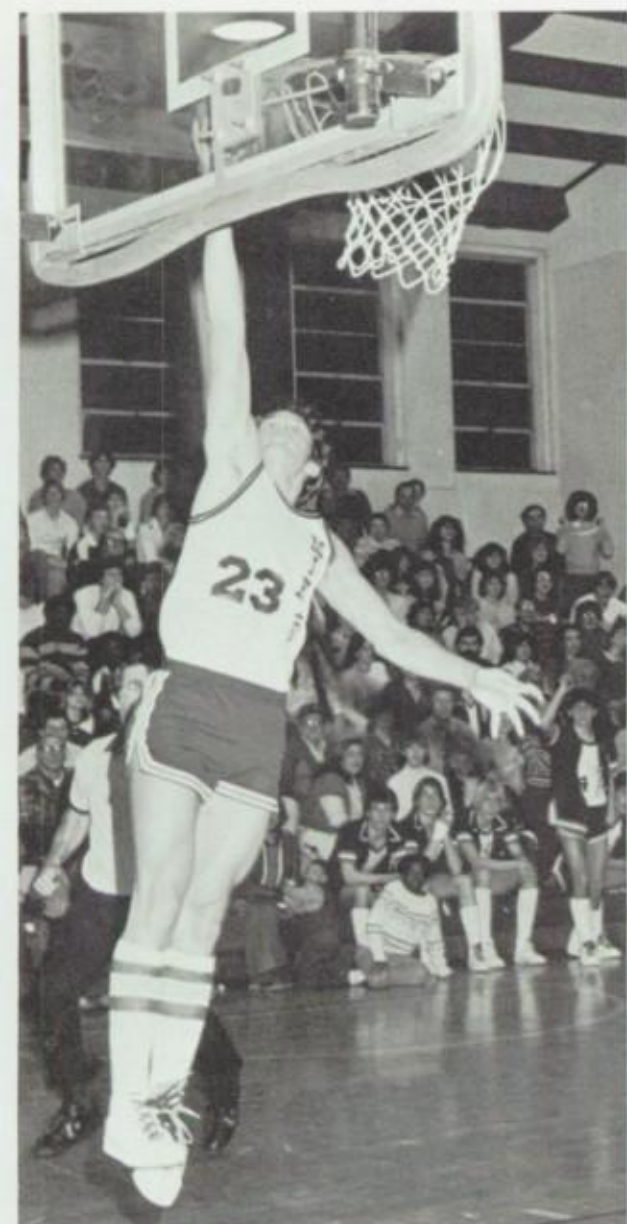

MIKES' EXPERIENCE AIDS CONFIDENCE

The McCorristin High School Varsity basketball team completed one of its most successful seasons under the expertise coaching of Mr. Carmen Nitti and his assistant Jack Adams. A young and strong squad formed the nucleus of the team with juniors Joe Bodnar, Ralph Chiarello, and Willie Ellison leading the way. Other talented contributors to the team's winning ways included seniors Don Browning and Fran Ermi, juniors John Majarawitz, Darryl Payton and Mike Zito. Also junior Dean Pesarini and sophomores Chris Foss and Jeff Kardos moved up from the Junior Varsity squad to add their support.

The Iron Mikes presented a well balanced team of height, good ball handling and excellent shooting. The team, executing a balanced scoring attack, involved each player in a united effort. The quick assertiveness of Steve Brown and Don Browning controlled the team by running the offence, while Willie Ellison netted the points with his dazzling jump shots. Joe Bodnar, Ralph Chiarello, and Don Ellison provided the necessary board strength. The spirited efforts of the players paid off as the team earned a berth in the Parochial A Division of the NJSIAA State Tournament.

Still a young team, the Iron Mikes obtained valuable Varsity experience last year which aided in the optimism and confidence displayed year round. The starting five will be returning next year and Coach Nitti looks forward to an even more successful season. The team expects to be one of the best in the county next year and, with NJSIAA approval, looks forward to the Christmas 1981-1982 Tournament to be held in Las Vegas.

J.V. AND FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

KELLY SCORES 1,000, GIRLS' B-BALL TRIUMPHS

Several new faces appeared on the Girl's Varsity basketball team this year. The most notable change involved the replacement of former mentor Kevin Gallagher with rookie head coach Bob Graham, while Mrs. Alice Ranson returned as the Lady' Mikes assistant coach for the season. Returning letter-winners included seniors Pam Mason- co-capt., Kelly Williams-co-capt., Lisa Kelly, Marcella Friedman, Michelle Delorme and Mary Pecht; juniors Barb Smith, Clare Cavanaugh, Stacie Majeski, and sophomores Gina Dalbo. New additions Jennifer Coleman, junior, Chris Buck and Jackie Overton, sophomores, and Carolynn Letts, freshman, rounded out the spirited squad which succeeded in qualifying for the Mercer County Tourneya and for a chance to defend their Group II State Championship title in this seasons State Tournament.

Senior standout Kelly Williams achieved a landmark of her own this season as she broke 1,000 points midway through the season. In the fourth quater of the game against Ewing, Kelly connected on a jump shot to shatter the 1,000 point mark and provided one of the teams moments this season.

Kelly Williams is congradulated by family, friends and team members on her reaching the 1000 point mark.

BASEBALL ANTICIPATES PROMISING SEASON

McCorristin's Varsity baseball team anticipates a banner 1981 campaign partially because of the return of several high caliber players. All starters from last year's team, Richard Leckie, Robert Unverzagt, James Smith, John Terman and Fran Ermi will form the nucleus of the squad. A good year from the mound corp could lead the Mikes, blessed with an awesome hitting attack, to a successful season. Considering the promising possibilities, second-year coach, Mr. Scott Bollwage, feels optimistic.

Senior Rich Leckie gets himself into a sticky situation as Jeff Loffredo exhibits concentration on the game.

Senior Bob Unverzagt demonstrates the perfect stance leading to Iron Mike victory.

Frustrated Bob fouls off the second pitch.

With a mighty swing, Bob slams the pitch into left field, and will he?

Yes, Fran Ermi crosses the plate with another Iron Mike run.

Sam Manago, senior, anxiously awaits the pitch which will give him a sure hit.

The Iron Mikes baseball team would not be a success without the direction of Mr. Scott Bollwage, coach.

Senior Fran Ermi contributes his talent to the team through his hitting and fielding skills.

"Desperation" is the look on senior Sam Manago's face as he eagerly attempts to make it to third.

A determined senior, John Terman, prepares to force the runner out at second.

Senior Jim Inman enjoys the stardom of being a baseball player.

LADY MIKES' SOFTBALL TO STEAL THE SHOW

Kelly Williams, heads back to third after another stolen base, as Mr. Bushelli guides her.

Stacie Majeski lets loose another winner for the Lady Mikes.

Ready to hit and run, Kelly Williams stands at home plate.

Kelly Williams' intensity wins McCorristin pride.

Third baseman Kathy Crozier shows her form.

Chris Buck prepares for another base hit.

Pitcher Brenda Brocassini unleashes another strike.

Kathy Crozier awaits the play while Kelli Williams looks on confidently.

Kathy Crozier easily catches the ball on the bounce.

Seniors Vicki Jeramias and Lisa Kelly practice their winning form.

Seniors Pam, Brenda, Vicki, and Lisa relax after another grueling practice.

Pam Mason and Brenda Procassini take time out from practice to discuss their strategy for tomorrow's game.

TRACK RETURNS WITH SKILLED UNDERCLASSMEN

Mr. Thomas Mahon, the varsity track coach for the Iron Mikes, returned last spring for his second year at the helm for the team. The team itself consisted of three areas: running, weight, and field events.

Returning field and weightmen from last year's team included: Dominic Petrucci (pole vault, javelin), Bart Townsend (shotput, discus, javelin), Edward Jacko (high and intermediate hurdles), John Overton (high hurdles, high jump), Tom Davidson (high jump), and Ed Zoladz (intermediate hurdles).

Runners from last year's squad include: Steve Brown (sprinter, long jump), John Dilworth (distance runner), Kevin Denti (distance runner), and John Hornyak (distance runner).

Steve Brown, sophomore, is caught in action during another successful long jump.

Pole vaulter Dominic Petrucci springs into action for the Mikes.

John Dilworth uses his last wind to pass a Notre Dame opponent.

Senior John Overton and junior Ed Jacko take a flying leap toward a hopeful victory over Notre Dame.

Michael Britton shows signs of a grueling race as he makes his way to the finish line.

Tom Davidson shows determination and skill as he jumps up. . . up. . .

. . . and over the high bar.

CHEERLEADERS SHINE IN SPIRIT AND COMPETITION

Varsity- Column 1: Joyce Papp, captain Carla Guagliardo, Jeanine DiLissio, Nancianne DeLorenzo, Column 2: Angela Loffredo, co-captain- Maria Barbato, Anne Tuffy, Lucy Valletto, Judy Willever Column 3: Toni Montervino, Tracey Destribats, Linda Bucci, Maria DiMattia

Throughout the football, soccer, and basketball seasons, McCorristin cheerleaders enthusiastically provide school spirit and energy. Regardless of wins, ties or losses, the cheerleaders know they are supporting the best-THE MIKES. This endeavor requires year-round time, practice, and smiles.

This year the cheerleaders displayed their talents through competitions in Boston and in the Knights of Columbus tournament. They showed what makes up McCorristin High School-Spirit. When it comes to supporting the Iron Mikes "spirit" is the McCorristin Cheerleaders middle name.

Varsity and J.V. cheerleaders urge on the Mikes.

Freshmen- Darlene Liedtka, Joan Krulewicz, Joyce Czajkowski, Margaret Raymond, Stacie Mangine, Denise Buroczi, Nancy Palmere, Danielle Pelc

J.V. squad co-captain Marybeth Tattoni, supplies spirit for the varsity football team.

GRAND FINALE

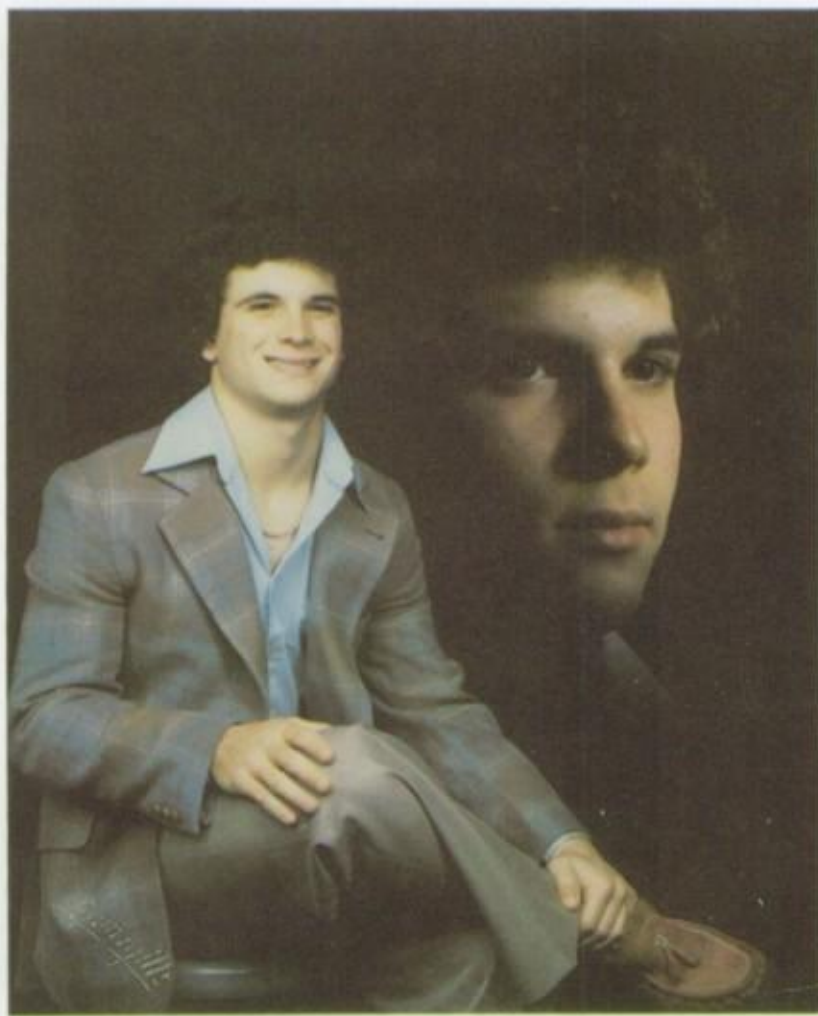

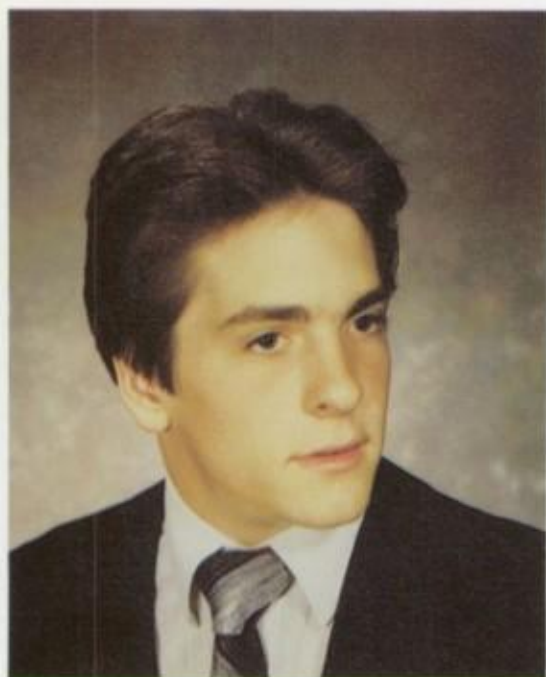

SENIORS SHARE REMEMBRANCE

The class of 1981 wishes to honor those classmates who have passed away throughout the years. Although David Zelley, Colleen Flynn, and Noel Ortey are no longer with us, we will remember them in our hearts as a part of our class. Their smiles, their laughter, and their love will remain a part of our lives forever. We will never forget the times that we shared with them or their concern for others. We pray that they will guide and protect us and help each of us to realize the true meaning of life.

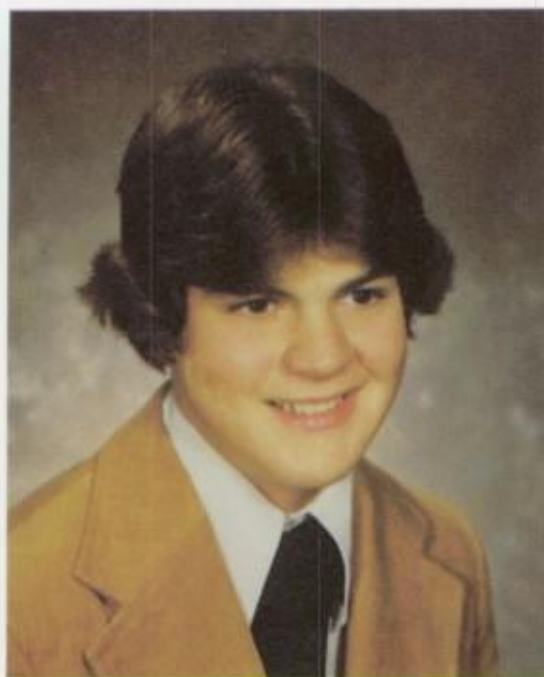

"I shall pass through this world but once.
Any good therefore that I can do
Or any kindness that I can show
To any human being,
Let me do it now.
Let me not defer or neglect it.
For I shall not pass this way again."

"THE GREATEST CLASS ON EARTH!"

The Greatest Class on Earth

Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to McCorristin High School's 1981 Extravaganza! Please take your seats as we begin our program of spectacular events.

In the first ring the Homecoming show awes viewers with its presentation of beauty. Next tumblers and dancers perform in our G.A.A. special attraction. To your right is a sideshow of graceful promenaders in formal attire. To your left the mimes reflect in "Retreat." At intermission the clowns delight all with their refreshing food-balancing act.

We continue our starstudded roster with the student council leading each troupe in feats never before attempted under the MHS tent. In all seasons, our strongmen and wonderwomen dazzle spectators with their competitive performances. As the audience directs its attention to the group act across from the sports arena, the minstrels delight the human ear with enthusiastic tones. Later in our show, the minstrels accompany the Gypsy and her Roses and Lees as they aim to captivate with their rendition of an old world classic.

And now, in the center ring 1981 Extravaganza assembles all performers for our ultimate achievement — our MAGNIFICENT, UNFORGETTABLE Graduation!

UNDER THE BIG TOP

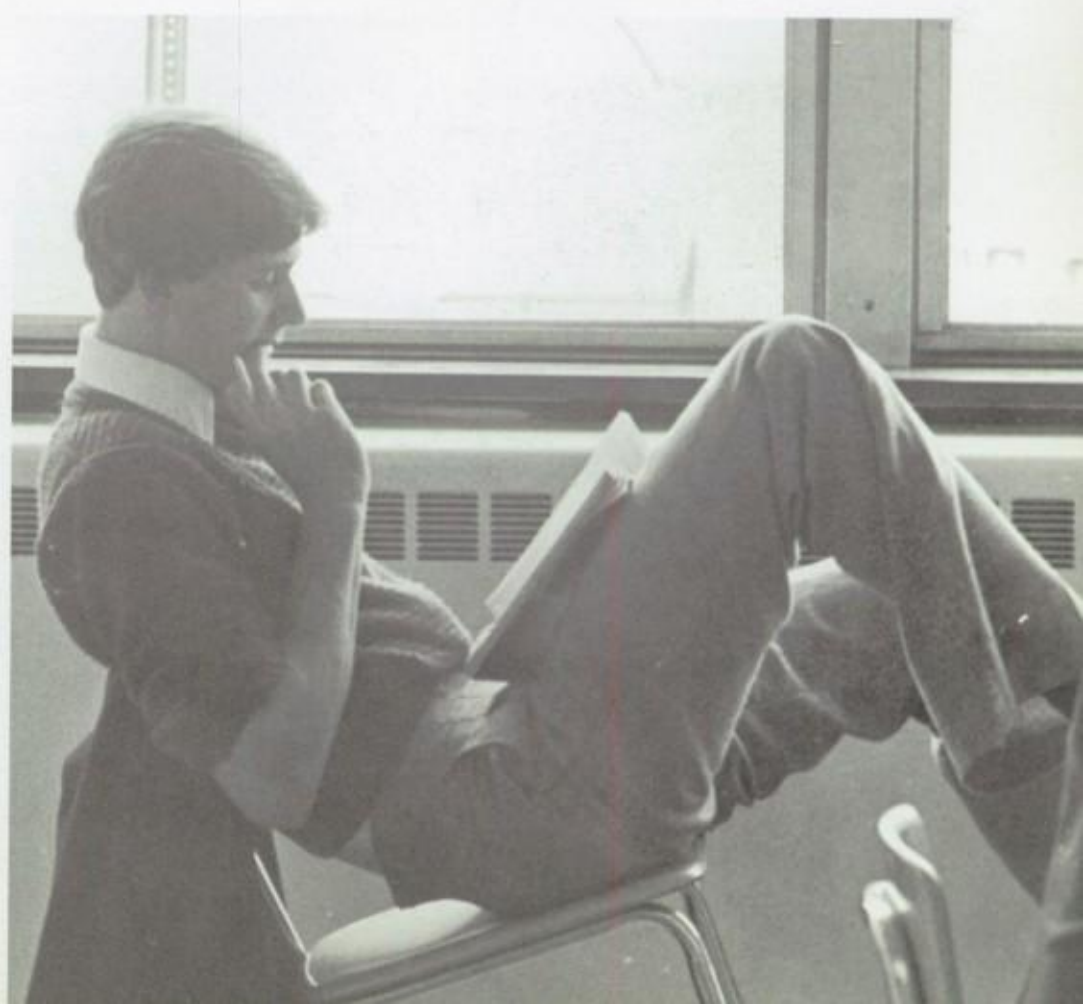

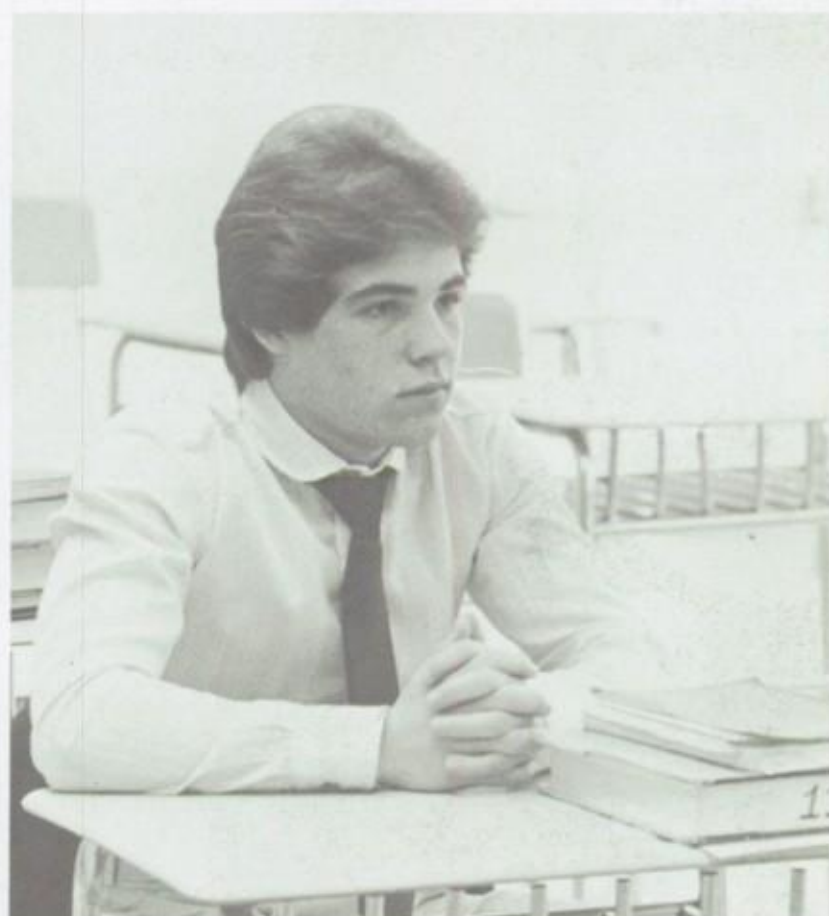

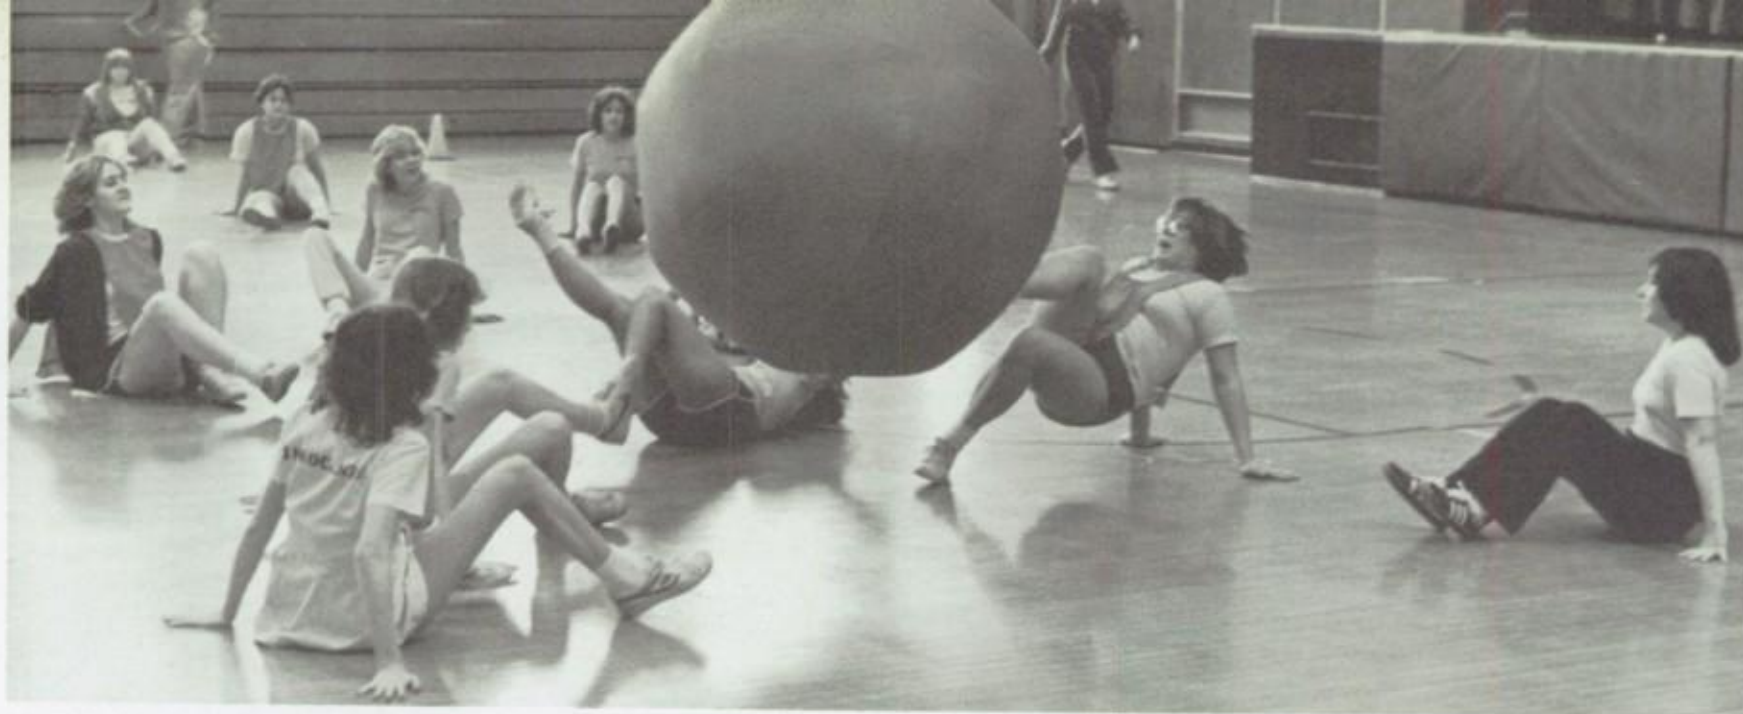

REMEMBER WHEN we suffocated at the junior prom, and froze at the senior prom.

- . . . we had to juggle to play tennis.
- . . . the giraffe's neck got slit.
- . . . Euripides, you paid for 'em.
- . . . Antonian staff was so desperate they started repeating articles on the same page.
- . . . abababcdcdefgg was the popular rhyme scheme.
- . . . Student Council projects were planned and not cancelled.
- . . . the Earth was pear-shaped.
- . . . the Mostrangler developed her muscular arms.
- . . . fire drills were only on rainy days.
- . . . we won a football game - cause I sure don't.
- . . . Brown Team won in 1979.
- . . . Miss Hathaway had chalk on her nose.
- . . . Lacey Wollamn got glopped.
- . . . nobody skipped on junior skip day - except three fools.
- . . . "Forever Friends in Emerald City" and "The Muppets Go To The Winter Olympics" were popular prom themes.
- . . . we had the most beautiful backround for the junior prom.
- . . . we didn't find out what the junior prom colors were until we got there.
- . . . Mary Jupe made her famous "S" on the floor.
- . . . we all became Royal Canadian Mounties.
- . . . there was a rabid animal at the senior prom.
- . . . Susie Homemaker threw punch at Bill Mutton.
- . . . the terrific senior hall Christmas decorations lost.
- . . . Sue Chops went choppin' at Morris Hall.
- . . . the Chem 2 class almost blew-up the lab.
- . . . we had stock in Immaculate and Triangle Art.
- . . . mechanic Yager experienced the ramifcations of a flat tire.
- . . . Columbus and the boys discovered America, you know what I mean.
- . . . we experienced the human respirator.
- . . . spud turned into a smashed potato.
- . . . we had to figure out the moronic code of HDL.
- . . . noone knew the correct pronunciations except Nestor.
- . . . there was no difference between a major quiz and a minor test.
- . . . we changed our junior float, rechanged it, and changed it again.
- . . . Porker didn't like his Physic's grade.

REMEMBER WHEN you could smell the slave ships coming before you could see them.

- . . . there was trouble brewing under the moonlight and magnolia tradition.
- . . . paratrooping was our favorite past-time.
- . . . we all reviewed chapter 10 on vectors.
- . . . Fr. John Powell was our favorite person to quote.
- . . . Gold Team won in 1980.
- . . . we all went to Bayhead after the junior prom.
- . . . holding on to a concept was very im-por-tant (don't take that literally).
- . . . junior ring day rainbows worked.
- . . . writing a brief, yet complete and concise, essay on the causes, effects, major events, important documents, and people of a certain period, highlighting ramifications and including your personal reaction, was required.
- . . . 15 seniors were almost killed on the "Rocky Horror" float.
- . . . we were young enough to remember what these "remember whens" meant.
- . . . the yearbook made a deadline!
